

The map displays the Hébertville area in Quebec, Canada, with the Saguenay River flowing through it. Key locations marked include Saint-Gédéon, Saint-Bruno, Hébertville Station, Hébertville, and Métabetchouan. The map also shows several lakes, including Lac à la Croix, Lac Vouzier, and Lac de la Tête de Mort. A red grid is overlaid on the map, and several green stars indicate specific locations. A logo for 'carbone boréal' is visible in the bottom right corner.
